DAVID

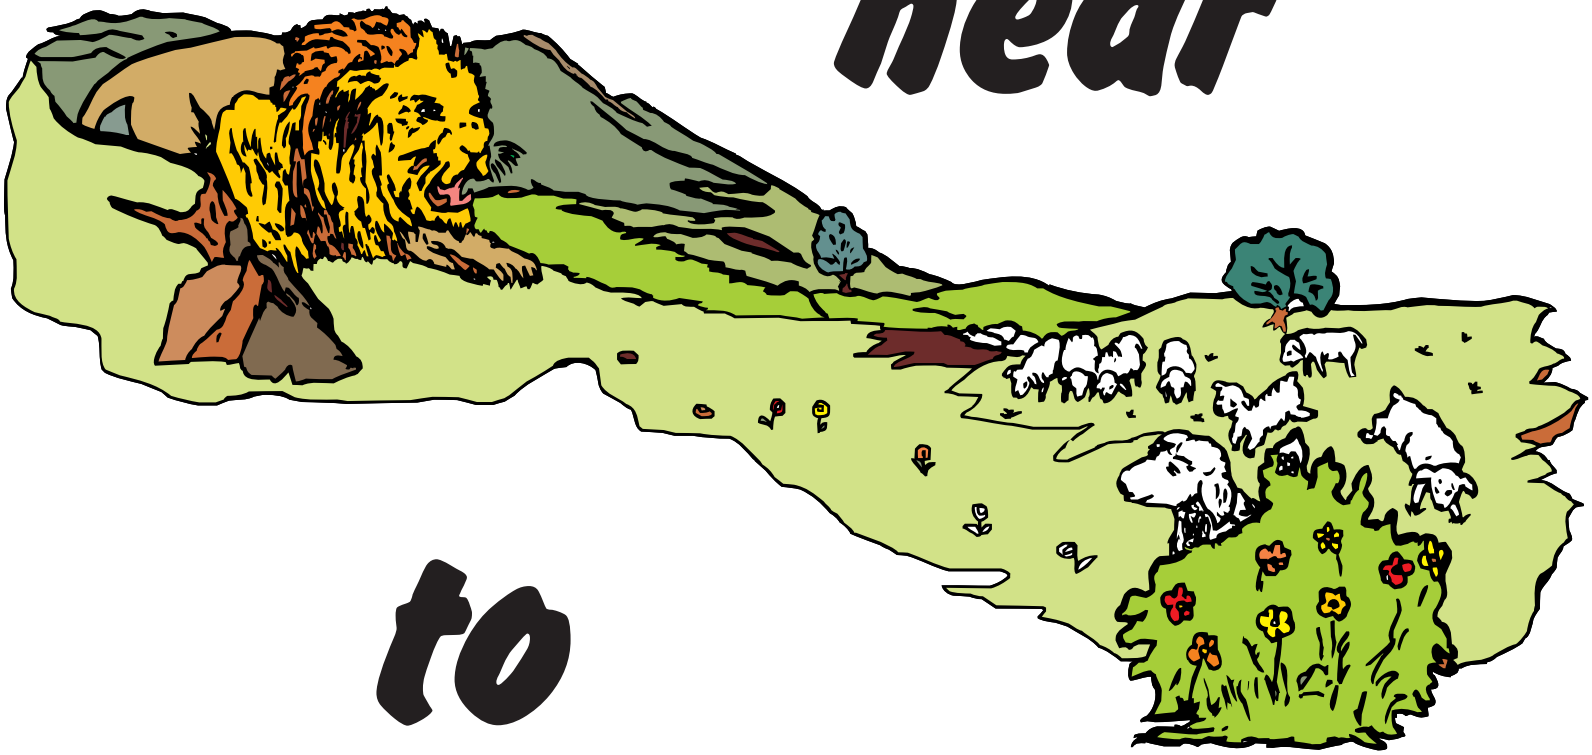

A boy who loved the Lord was David.

As he watched the sheep he'd play his harp and sing

If wild animals came near to harm them

Shepherd David used his trusty little sling

One day a man of God came walking.

Looking for the one who someday would be king.

The sons of Jesse passed before him,

But the Lord said,

"I have chosen none of these."

"I have yet another son," said Jesse,

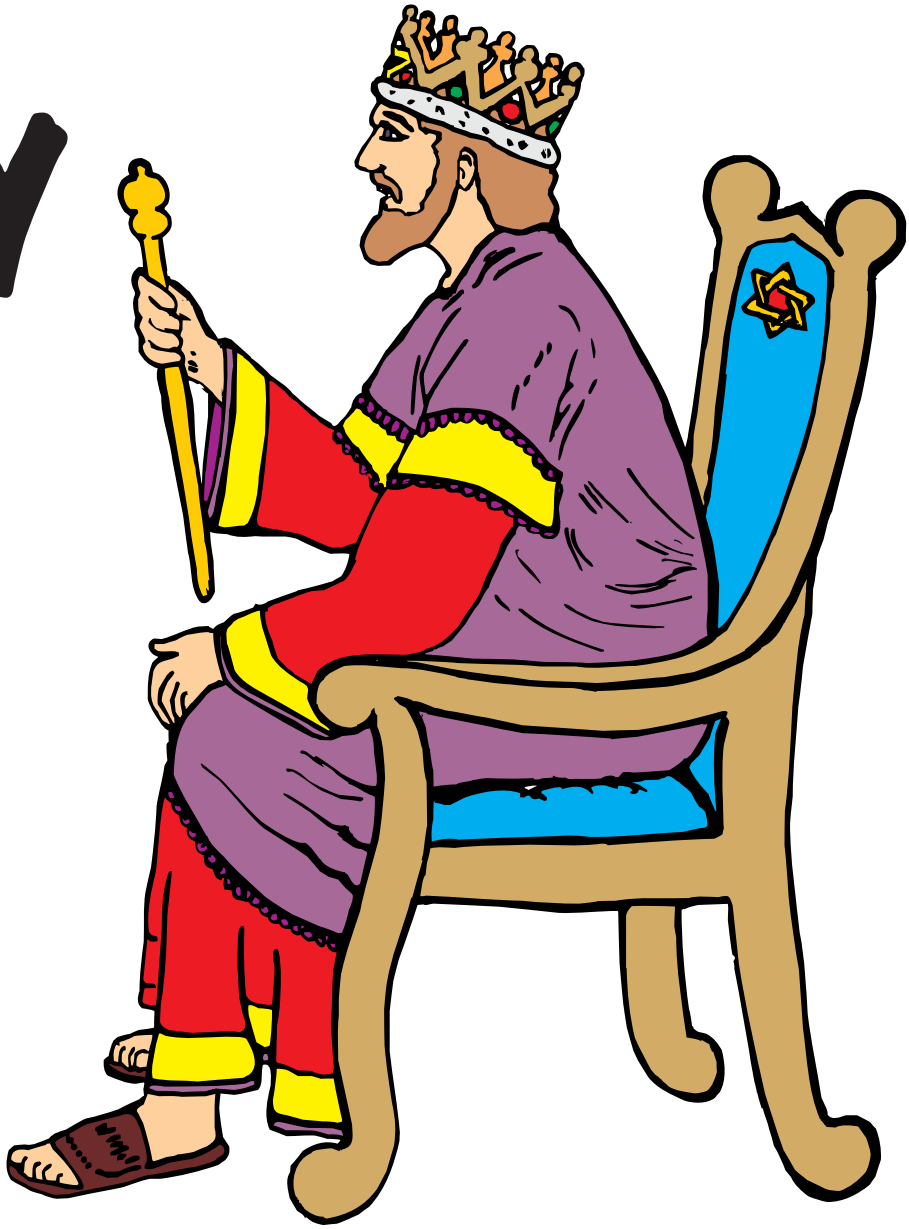

"As he watches sheep he'll play his harp and sing."

When he came, the man of God was happy.

For the Lord had chosen David to be king!
