DAVID

A boy who loved the LORD was David.

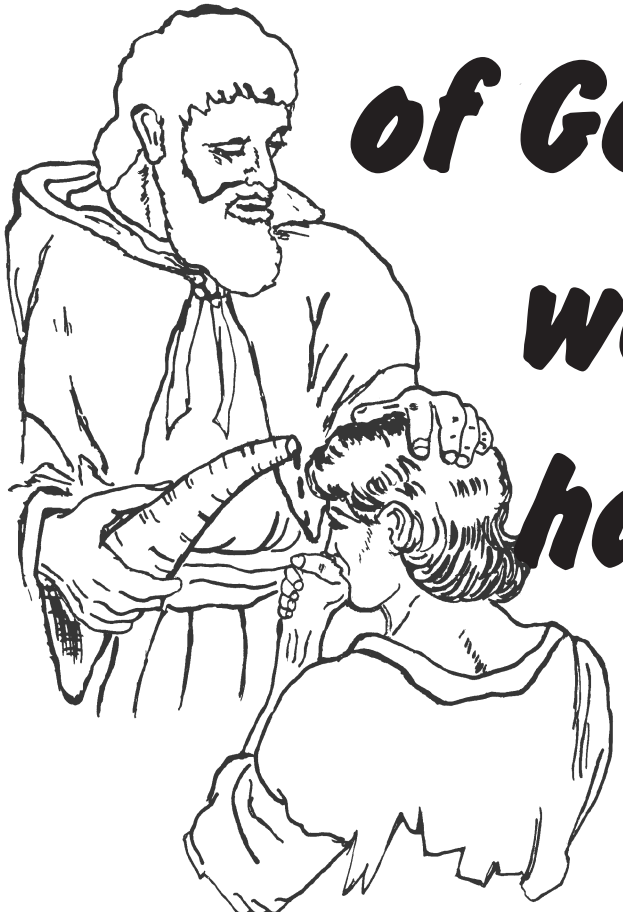

For the LORD had chosen David to be king!

As he watched the sheep
he'd play his harp and sing

When he came the man of God
was happy.

"As he watches sheep he'll play his harp and sing."

If wild animals came near to harm them

Shepherd David used his trusty little sling

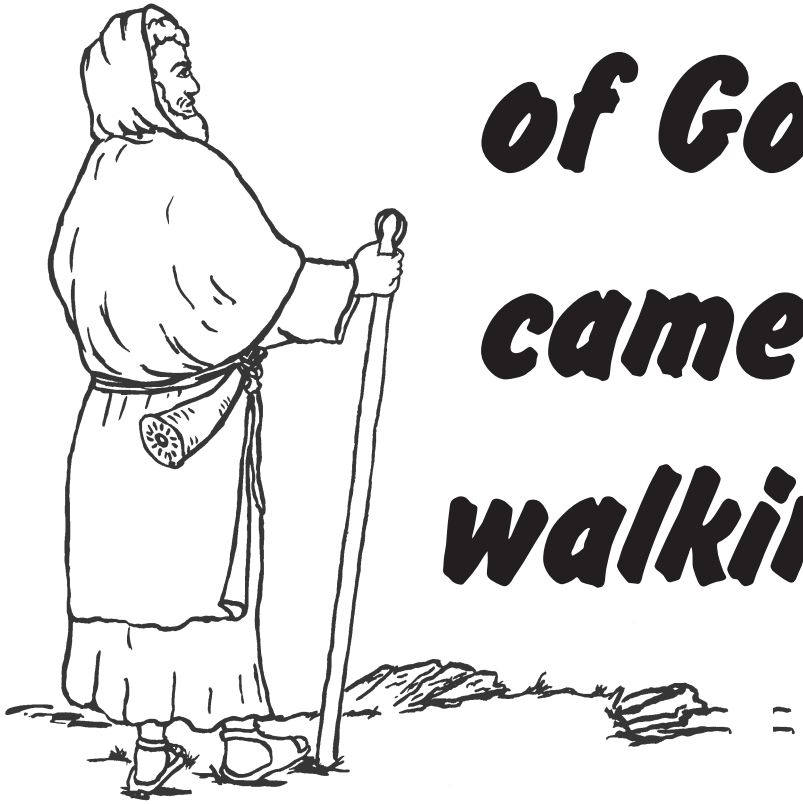

"I have yet another son," said Jesse,

One day a man of God came walking.

But the LORD said "I have chosen none of these."

Looking for the one who someday would be king.

The sons of Jesse passed before him,
